From and after this date no "dead head" advertising will be carried in the columns of THE REPUBLICAN. It costs money to set type, and we cannot afford to pay printers for labor on this class of advertising. The Arizona Republican company is willing to donate to each, to all meritorious public, religious and charitable enterprises, to the extent of five cents, but it has established a rule to give away no more advertising. Church and charitable notices will be printed at half the usual rates for the same class of advertising, but all other advertising will be charged for at regular rates.
THE REPUBLICAN will in the future, as in the past, devote its best energies to the up building and development of Phoenix and of Arizona, because that is its mission, and advertising ordered at the counting room by individuals must be paid for.

THE GREAT FRUIT BELT.

The valley of the Salt river has been celebrated for years as the fruit belt of the southwest, and the fact will be readily conceded by all who have had experience in the matter, that the fruits of this district are superior in flavor to those produced anywhere else in the country.

But the disadvantage under which the district has labored, up to a very few years ago, has been in the fact that only inferior varieties of fruits were cultivated here. The people of Arizona, cut off as they were from communication with the rest of the country, and almost completely isolated from the world, had not the advantage of the progress that had been made in fruit culture as well as in everything else, during the last decade, and consequently when the railroad penetrated this region and the American immigrant came in, he found the standard of horticulture in the territory about the same as had been with our forefathers a century ago. The better varieties of fruits were then soon introduced, and the new orchards are only just beginning to bear, but the small quantity of improved fruit that has already been sent abroad has been sufficient to show the favor with which it is received, and to remove all doubt of the fact that a few years hence, when the fruits of this valley become known to the public they will not rank second in the markets of the world to those of any other district of the American continent.

There are thousands of acres convenient to Phoenix still to be purchased at comparatively low prices, which are fully as well adapted to this purpose as any that have yet been utilized, and which only require planting and cultivating to make them as valuable as any in the country. There is no opening for a man of moderate capital, in any part of the country, that promises a better return than a fruit farm in the Salt River valley.

THE POOR OLD Herald may prate as much about "today's news are in the Herald" as it pleases, but the fact is that it is always about three months behind hand. The fourth daily paper which it referred to last night as about to be started was discussed fully three months ago, and abandoned by the projectors as impracticable.

WYOMING has decided to send two women as alternates to the Republican National convention. The young sister has seen Kansas and gone her one better in the woman suffrage line. "Grandma" Blair will not feel so lonely as it was feared the old lady would.

JOHN J. INGALLS will head the Republican delegation from Kansas to the National convention, and is already mentioned for chairman of that body. The brilliant Kansan is equally at home in the chair or on the floor.

THE PROSPECTS for Phoenix never were brighter. Now is the time to invest in real estate, build brick blocks and live on the fat of the land—and a heavy monthly rental roll.

CONVENTIONS of physicians and undertakers are now in progress at Wichita, Kan. They are holding separate meetings, of course, but people will make remarks, you know.

THE NOMINATION of Governor Murphy was confirmed by the senate yesterday, there being no opposition. Governor Murphy will give Arizona a clean and able administration.

ACTRESS LILLIAN RUSSELL drinks a pint of champagne every day, and the Herald makes the sparkling observation that the practice is developing her fizzy.

DEMOCRATS are talking of carrying Nebraska this fall. That is not strange. Occasionally you hear a Democrat assert that he will go to heaven when he dies.

THE WHEAT and the Alliance are both looking well in Kansas. One is growing and the other is dying.

THE FIRST NEWSPAPER IN ARIZONA.
"The Santa Rita Company" was formed by Charles D. Poston in Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1856, for the purpose of working the supposed rich mine in the Santa Rita mountains east of Tucson, which was the headquarters of several companies.

"The Santa Rita Company" had a cash capital of $150,000 to start with, and came across the plains with a train of wagons and fifty men.

Among the outfit was a hand press on which "The Arizona" was published at Tucson—1857—1858—"Sie transit gloria mundi." C. D. P.

A Child Killed.
AUSTIN, TEX., May 9.—This afternoon the 2-year-old boy of Theodore Cullen was run over and killed by an electric car in front of his parents' residence. The motorman, Wallace Peoples, and conductor E. J. Dempsey were put under bond to answer for the killing. The motorman says the child was playing between the sidewalk and car-track, and when the car was within 20 feet the child ran across the track, and turning to run back fell.Terrible Ravages of Yellow Fever.
WARSAW, May 9.—Out of 30,000 Polish immigrants who went to Brazil, 1,000 are recorded as having returned. It is estimated that 13,000 Poles have died in Brazil from the yellow fever. The many bad reports from Brazil have diverted the stream of emigration to the United States and this has been increased by the recent bad harvests in Poland.Locals Drowned.
STUART, ILL., May 9.—Instead of a wedding there was a double funeral a few miles from here Wednesday. Charles Vannaden and Minnie Guff, were engaged to be married within a short time. They tried to ford Beaver Creek Sunday night. The could not see it was out of the bank because of the darkness. Their bodies were recovered and interred yesterday.Great Feats of Strength.
LONDON has been entertained lately by feats of strength that are certainly remarkable and probably unsurpassed in modern times. First there was a man named Sandow, who was an enormously powerful man; he was succeeded by Sampson, and he in turn by an Irish American named Sullivan. Curiously, the three names begin with the letter S, which is also the initial of "strength," and of the Greek word for strength (sthenos). Sullivan, the latest comer, is thirty years of age, stands 5 feet 8 1/2 inches in height, and weighs 168 pounds. His appearance presents little that is unusual in the way of muscular development, and his biceps are neither very large nor wonderfully rigid. It is in his neck and jaw that his strength chiefly lies, and the majority of his feats are such as bring this peculiarity into special prominence.

At an exhibition given in London he fastened a chain to a 56-pound weight, and the other end being gripped between his teeth, swung himself around and around until the twisting chain assumed a nearly horizontal line. The feat was repeated with the weight doubled, and as the performer, with both hands to his hips and using every sinew in his frame, swirled around and around the audience wondered with anxiety what would happen if one of the links should fly asunder. The most remarkable feat, however, that Sullivan performed was the lifting of an elephant by his teeth. It was a "baby," his true, but it weighed about 1,800 pounds and was lifted a clear three inches from the ground, its whole weight pendant from the jaw of the man above.

Sullivan was not successful in an attempt to break a chain with his arm, having injured this limb on the previous night. He succeeded, however, in proving that his prowess was not entirely confined to feats with his teeth by lifting a barrel of water, weighing 660 pounds, with the middle finger of his right hand.—Harper's Young People.

A Rare Find in Baltimore.
A few days ago Mrs. Andrew Reid, Jr., of Mount Vernon place, who is a native of France, and whose brother is an artist in Paris, made one of the richest art discoveries that has ever come to light in Baltimore. Mrs. Reid is a great lover of art and knows a good picture when she sees one. For a long time she has been in the habit of hunting through second-hand stores for old paintings. Several days ago, by chance, she walked into a store on North Charles street. There she saw a dilapidated looking old picture, which represented the head of a French peasant. At first she did not pay much attention to the picture, but went on to examine the other old things in the store. By chance she returned to the picture, and it struck her as being a remarkably fine piece of art work. She turned it over and looked on the back, and there was the artist's name. Before her was one of the most valuable pictures in Baltimore.

She immediately called the dealer and asked the price of the picture. He staggered her by asking twenty dollars. She paid the price, took the picture home with her, and now it cannot be bought for less than thousands.

It was a rich find, truly, as there are only two other pictures in Baltimore by the same artist. The picture is by Jean Baptiste Greuze, and on the back of it is "Jean Baptiste Greuze, 1735 to 1808." Mr. William T. Walters owns the other, and Mr. Leonce Robillon owns the other. Mr. Walters viewed Mrs. Reid's picture yesterday and pronounced it genuine. He says it is worth thousands of dollars.—Baltimore American.

Old Bones Seized.
During the recent storm the heavy surf washed away several feet of the beach between Sandy Hook and Spinnecock Cove, N. J. In one place where the sea had a clean sweep fifteen feet of the beach was upturned, and a big pile of human bones was exhumed. A number of bullets were found among the skeletons. Spanish coin 100 years old and a number of brass buttons with the numerals 4 and 9 were also found in the mass. It is known that both American and British soldiers were encamped on Sandy Hook at various times during the Revolutionary war, but there is no record of any burying ground ever having been there. The bones and other relics have been seized by relic hunters.—New York Letter.

Nearly a thousand people committed suicide in Paris during the year 1891. The favorite method was by drowning, by which 231 ended their existence.

The most eminent Egyptologists place the date of the first use of glass at a period too remote to be given in years.

"German Syrup"

For Coughs & Colds.

John F. Jones, Edmon, Tex., writes: I have used German Syrup for the past six years, for Sore Throat, Cough, Colds, Pains in the Chest and Lungs, and let me say to anyone wanting such a medicine—German Syrup is the best.

B. W. Baldwin, Carnesville, Tenn., writes: I have used your German Syrup in my family, and find it the best medicine I ever tried for coughs and colds. I recommend it to everyone for these troubles.

R. Schmalhausen, Druggist, of Charleston, Ill., writes: After trying scores of prescriptions and preparations I had on my files and shelves, without relief for a very severe cold, which had settled on my lungs, I tried your German Syrup. It gave me immediate relief and a permanent cure.
